Unoccupied home was on fire. Owner resident is an IF Resident was at the property at 19:00. Resident then left the property after a brief visit. Around 21:07 the neighbors noticed the house on fire and assisted to extinguish the fire. Approximately 21:21 the message came through for assistance. At 21:40 first fire truck was on scene. 6 fire engines/trucks were on scene, 4 COT (Engine 32, Ladder 32, 11 & 12) & 2 ADT. SAPS was also on scene 2 x vehicles (BWC830B & BWT686B), 5 officers. 23:15 services began to stand down. Property closed off with police tape. Possible cause: Neighbors 12 year son witnessed a man with a green shirt/top (hoodie) running through the property around 21:00. WV09 entered property for investigation, the following was found: Fire started in the northeast bedroom , fire was deliberately started, fuel accelerants was found at the back or north side of the property which was a 5l petrol with some cloth believed to be torn from a curtain or something from the house, along with some broken steel. POI is believed to be the IF (residents) ex boyfriend. Info from the neighbors: Its believed that the ex boyfriend is quite uncultured and rude and is quite hostile on the phone. The house is currently vulnerable to opportunistic criminals as the property is now open after the fire and poses a threat to surrounding residents for wall jumpers.
